

Chapter One

This is chapter one text used for integration tests. It includes multiple sentences so text extraction remains stable.

The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog. Reading aloud should include this page as its own chapter.

Chapter Two

This is chapter two text used for integration tests. It intentionally appears on a separate page with a section heading.

Pack my box with five dozen liquor jugs. Reading aloud should treat this as a second chapter.